Journey & Burnham News.

A Brooklyn Chance for the Whole of New York.

There's no need to tell the people of Brooklyn of the high character of Journey & Burnham merchandise or of the house's honorable record of fifty-four years of constant success. Every one this side of Brooklyn Bridge knows all about it if he knows anything about such things at all. To the people of those parts of this great metropolitan district to whom we are comparative strangers we want to say that this store has only one rival among all of Greater New York's dry goods houses in respect to all that stands for

EXCLUSIVENESS IN STYLE.
HIGH CHARACTER OF GOODS.

When we add that no store has such a high reputation for painstaking attention to the wants of customers and that the prices have always been striking for their moderation, quality considered, we have told the whole story.

We now have an announcement to make which can't fail to interest every woman and every man within shopping distance of the junction of Fulton and Flatbush avenue. The management of the business as recently reorganized find that the stocks in many departments are far too large for present needs. For this and other reasons connected with the management of the business we will have a Great Reorganization Sale in All Departments.

The sale will commence at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning and the prices are in many instances

CUT DOWN BELOW COST.

We feel, however, that we can afford to make these sacrifices for the advertising they will give us.

The public on its part will find this one of the greatest chances that ever occurred in New York for getting the finest quality of goods at extraordinarily low prices.
